See the highlights of the frozen continent on this 14 night fly, cruise & stay package aboard MS Fridtjof Nansen. Your adventure starts in Buenos Aires with a pre-cruise stay where you can spend your evening at leisure discovering the 'Paris of South America' for yourself. Be transferred to the airport for your flight to Ushuaia where you will embark MS Fridtjof Nansen & set sail on your Antarctica voyage. Sail across the Drake Passage before arriving at the most remote destination on Earth, Antarctica! The places you will visit are serene and offer opportunities to observe different types of Antarctic wildlife, including penguin colonies, seals, whales, glaciers, icebergs in every shape and colour, whaling stations and scientific stations. The activities on offer are exciting and varied. One day you will go ashore to see penguins and hear the crackling sounds of glaciers. The next day, you may get to feel the wind as you cruise amid the sea ice, looking for seals. Another day you may choose optional kayaking or a walk. Conclude your voyage in Ushuaia with a flight to Buenos Aires where you will enjoy a 3 night Buenos Aires Essentials Tour. Your tour includes 3 nights accommodation with breakfast, a classic city tour, tango show with dinner & private return transfers with a guide so you are bound to have a memorable experience.
